FORWARD MARCH

Here comes a parade! Walker County High School is on parade.

There are no onlookers in this parade. Everyone is a participant. Each teacher leads his "band" of students through the crowded streets. Through these streets of Learning and Knowledge, march the triumphant students. Another year closer to their goal. This is a four year parade.

Waving their black and gold banners and singing the school song, the upperclassmen and lowerclassmen alike, are one in spirit, truth, and loyalty to "dear old Walker High . . ."

There are approximately 925 people in this long parade. But soon 225 of them will turn from the "band" and march into the street of the Future. Confronting them is all the anticipation, bewilderment and aspiration associated with innovation—a new life, a new parade in life.

They are leaving behind their fellow students and marching away. Some may fall out of step, and some may change their course. But the parade will still go on, and new "bands" will take the place of the old.

Yes, the students of Walker's parade will keep marching, marching, marching from today into tomorrow, from Walker into the future.

Wayne,

If you weren't all tied up we might be well acquainted. You're a darling boy with a lot of potential. I hope your life is a success with or without me.

Love forever,
N. Mallory.

Wayne,

I'm sorry you're so dumb. You're really pretty good for not being any smarter. Thanks for being a great V.D. to you. Good luck always.

Jim P.

Wayne,

you and I have been pal-buddies for mucho years. And I have enjoyed them sorta. Now, I am gonna leave this high school and you'll be left here alone with Belinda and you'll will be the "big bro" I'm gonna stop writing cause it ain't worth the muscle strain. Wayne keep a cool mind and also stay as cool as guts and also don't even forget me cause if you do I'll forget you.

Marcus the "bro"

May your happiness be as deep as the ocean and your troubles as light as its foam

Lots of luck,
Janie D.

Wayne
It's been a great year and I hope you enjoy your vacation.
Love,
Belinda

Wayne! We've
almost made it
through this year!
Physics has been a lot of fun! Yeah!
We'll be big seniors
next year. Class of '69.
Best of luck!
Mary Anne

Wayne,
I love you with all my heart. I hope our wedding will be as lovely as my Grandfather's.
Let's go to Cullman by the way of the Lake. Love always Steve

Wayne,

I haven't gotten to know you this year, but maybe we'll have some classes
together next year.

Good luck,
Art O'Neal

Ya-la-la-la-la-Oh, Hi Wayne. How do I feel about you. Well, you know Belinda will get mad but your so-
so-so-wonderful! Iaa
la-la-la-love,
Aue

Dear ole Wayne,

This has been a great year.
We made a change Spring Practice early. I just can't express how I enjoyed having you as my partner on the 'MM'. Be good and I don't have to wish you luck. Bruce Woodham (MM)

Wayne,

I've enjoyed working for Paces and being with you this year. I know you can't raise hell because Bill keeps an "eye" on you.
Good luck, Love, [unclear]

How long
is your great thing
with your English
to and your wife
and your wife
is in luck
